Defense Equipment Management Program (DEMP)

Total Asset Visibility (TAV)

- DEMP file is easily transmitted to GySgt Wilson for shelf life extension testing.
- Data is consolidated by support staff to provide TAV on all NBCD Equipment.
- A robust query tool is used to assemble usable data for identifying equipment by contract/lot/manufacture date and location worldwide.
- MICAS is still being reviewed for increased capabilities to support all Service requirements.

Purpose

- Standardize Accountability
- Achieve Total Asset Visibility
- Consolidate Shelf Life Data

The DoD Clothing and Textile Web Page was designed to support Shelf Life Management, surveillance and notification for nuclear, biological and chemical defense (NBCD) protective clothing. Up to this point the Shelf Life Management, surveillance and notification processes have been fragmented. This web page is intended to centralize the procedures, ensuring the most comprehensive dissemination of Shelf Life and serviceability data. The Marine Corps managed Joint Service NBC Equipment Assessment Program (JSNBCEAP) has agreed to assume responsibility for Shelf Life Management, surveillance, and notification for all items identified as clothing used for protection for nuclear, biological and chemical warfare agents. The clothing and textile web site has streamlined the dissemination of information on a DoD level, assuring all chemical protective items that have been tested for shelf life extension are listed and available to all users.
